IN RE: PETITION FOR ARBITRATION

Bravura I Condominium Association, Inc., Petitioner,

v.

Case No. 2005-06-4719

Unit Owners Voting For Recall, Respondent.

_____ /

FINAL ORDER OF DISMISSAL

On December 12, 2005, Bravura I Condominium Association, Inc., (the association) filed a petition for recall arbitration. On January 3, 2005, the association filed a suggestion of mootness, indicating that subsequent to filing the petition in this matter, it received another group of recall agreements which it deemed to be proper effective and, as a result, the board members subject to the recall in the instant matter have stepped down and replacement board members have taken their place.

By order dated January 5, 2006, the undersigned permitted the respondent ten days in which to show cause why this matter should not be dismissed as moot. As of the date this order, the respondent has not filed a response.

Therefore, based upon the foregoing, it is ORDERED:

Arbitration case number 2005-06-4719, is dismissed as moot.

DONE AND ORDERED this 20th day of January 2006, at Tallahassee, Leon County, Florida.
